Industrial Democrat Day November 8th

During the past forty-two weeks this paper has printed and distributed 400 copies and we feel that the work we have done for this party just now is nothing for your aid and assistance in maintaining this paper. The stockholders of this company have made great personal sacrifices but if we can keep from suspension for a week more we will be advertising enough to pay the paper on its own terms.

If you want a paper that will show the membership from flag rings, and advertising contracts with a large cash on hand.

J. N. Gilmore a Sure Winner

The Fourth district in the heart of Oklahoma, having cast the largest vote in 1918, when the Republicans cast nearly one-third of the total vote.

There is not a distant prospect that there is a better outlook than in the Fourth, and J. N. Gilmore advanced the party's best chance in connection with the election.

The old parties are badly scared as to what Tompkins and Reed will do, and have been greatly excited by the success of Adams, realizing that Carter had no chance, as neither has Reed and that they can no longer be led by the slaughter.

There is no prospect that there is a better outlook than in the Fourth district, and J. N. Gilmore advanced the party's best chance in connection with the election.

PAID PARTY. For those in new workings in Pittsburg for those in the direction of the country, which will be held until after the election, Commission November 18th. For will make a tour of the entire district through the industrial districts at each place.

Those who have been arrested by the Industrial Democrat at each place have been arrested by the Industrial Democrat in routing five speakers this week and putting on the best counter-demonstration.

J. Luther Langston Endorse Stallard for Congress in the Fifth

On the afternoon of October 26th, a large party was held in Lakota in the home of H. H. Stallard, former Clerk, Miss Kean-Gibbons and J. Luther Langston.

All of the speakers were accorded a most cordial hearing, but it remained for J. Luther Langston, with his able and fertile wit to hit the voters from a working class standpoint, declaring that it was in the interest of the whole class that Stallard be elected to Congress.

The next morning the Industrial Democrat, because the ball was in the air, held a meeting and was well attended. Those who were present were well informed as to the situation.

Order four subscriptions for OKLAHOMA and send them Seven for $10, enclosing five dollars.

We have made two calls upon you for the past week and would not you were not a case of life and death. If you don't want to see the world and the membership fall without a struggle in Oklahoma, there is a remedy in the party, buy OKLAHOMA and do your own share of work.

LOCAL OPTION.

Blawson, Okla., Nov. 1.—One of the big items of the city's new day are:

"If the preacher and the musician and the prohibition are removed from their cities for prohibition, they also are removed from the city, he has kept and the prohibition, keep on moving until, because they will be working for prohibition and will vote for prohibition."

"Having secured $10.00 for my horse loaned in a county for the sale of that horse and the horse has been loaned to another person, the owner of my horse cannot get the horse back until he pays the loan."

Leonard Johnson In Pittsburg Mo.

Comrad Leonard Johnson, the Farmer Leader, will hit Pittsburg county tomorrow Oct. 25th.

Bishop Quayle A Reactionary

At the Auditorium in Oklahoma City, September 24th, 1918, in Bishop Quayle's address for prohibition, he said:

Milwaukee, made infamous by the fact, only Socialistic City in America, trying to make someone keep the law, with little success. We must have prohibition.

"I DON'T TAKE MUCH OF THEIR INITIATIVE AND DEFERRED BUSINESS."

By these expressions Bishop Quayle puts himself on record with the reactionaries and the retrograde—the people who say plain objections in the way of progress.

Bishop Quayle, in effect, says: "I am opposed to Socialistic dogmas and in favor of that dogmian which has prevailed in the past."

Prohibition is a form of despotism and an assumption of the right to control the freedom of individuals. It assumes the right of the government to choose for the individual. And once it has gained a positive foothold it leads forward to the absolute destruction of these proclaimed harbors of man in this republic, Liberty and Independence.

Will Socialism Destroy the Home?

(By Robert Hunter)

Is it possible and that Socialism will destroy the home and what I have said I wonder, what kind of home? Will it destroy the homes of the very widows of Reno, Nevada?

Will it destroy the homes of the young American girl who has married a foreigner? Will it destroy the homes of the men who are married and unmarried, overworked men to which the poor are being led?

Will it destroy the homes of the men who are married and unmarried, overworked men to which the poor are being led?

What We Stand For

1. This paper stands for the total abolition of all forms of Socialism.

2. As a means to accomplish that end, we stand for the total abolition of all forms of Socialism.

3. As a means to accomplish that end, we stand for the total abolition of all forms of Socialism.

REMEMBER!
That a vote for SOCIALISM is a vote for the destruction of the home and the family.
